Thermogenic Weight Management from Omne Diem™ combines our exclusive Adiposano® complex with innovative aXivite®

- ▶ Adiposano® is a patented, unique glycosaminoglycan (GAG) complex rich in hyaluronic acid, designed specifically to promote adipokine homeostasis and support the reduction of white adipose tissue.*
- ▶ aXivite® (phenylcapsaicin) is an analog of capsaicin that displays higher activity vs natural capsaicin extracts and is delivered at minimum 98% purity versus the relative low concentration and purity of conventional capsaicinoid extracts (USP standard of 8%).*

Don't get burned

aXivite® (Phenylcapsaicin) provides pure capsaicin without introducing the irritating and potentially toxic components of the chili pepper.*

Features

Adiposano[®] glycosaminoglycan extract, which promotes weight management, joint comfort and metabolic health by modulating the expression/release of pro-inflammatory compounds and metabolic hormone-like substances.*

Contains aXivite[®] phenylcapsaicin, a natural capsaicin analog that works at a low dose to stimulate the use of fat as energy and modify adipose tissue activity.*

aXivite complements the activity of Adiposano while exerting its own activity to help burn fat and control appetite.*

aXivite has been shown to be better tolerated, more efficient, and more effective than conventional chili pepper extracts.

Omne Diem[™] Thermogenic Weight Management helps achieve calorie deficit, control appetite, and burn fat to complement diet and exercise regimens.*
